

Learning Then & Now

Share with your group members briefly:

- How you learned to tie your shoes; who taught you?
- When was your earliest recollection of God?
- How old were you when you learned your gender?
- When you got your first Bible (do you still have it?)

Schooling and learning (answer only one of the following for your group):

- What was the hardest subject in school for you?
- Share something you learned by yourself, that no one taught you?
- Share three things you know about yourself now that you didn't know 10 years ago.

Learning and faith (with your group, decide on the best answer to the following):

- What is the best way to learn about God?
- Based on your personal experience, what do children need most to grow in faith?
- Based on your personal experience, what do adults need most to grow in faith?
- The most important lesson about faith and life that both adults and children need to learn is: _____
